COY AND BERNHAMER.

THE DECISIONS OF THE LOWER COURTS AFFIRMED

By the United States Supreme Court—Both Men Will Now Go to the Penitentiary. Part of the Proceedings of the Senate and House—Bills Signed by Grover.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The supreme court of the United States has rendered a decision in the Coy-Bernhamer tally sheet forgery case from Indianapolis. The decisions of the courts below were affirmed.

Both Coy and Bernhamer are now in Indianapolis jail awaiting this decision. They were sentenced about three months ago to eighteen months in the penitentiary. Bernhamer was taken to the Michigan City, Ind., penitentiary at once, but Coy was sick and could not be removed. Since his recovery other cases against alleged conspirators have been begun, and Bernhamer has been taken from the penitentiary as a witness. Both men must now go to the penitentiary.

The supreme court of the United States has denied the motion of the Drawlough people to reverse its own decision on the telephone case.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Senator Stewart today introduced a proposed constitutional amendment to all the passage of a bill over a presidential veto by a majority instead of a two-thirds vote.

The senate passed with slight amendments the house bill authorizing the executive department to send exhibits to the Marietta, O., centennial. At 2 o'clock the senate went into secret session to consider the Hoar and Riddleberger resolutions on the fishery treaty.

The senate judiciary committee held its regular meeting today, but failed to take any action on, or even consider, the nomination of Mr. Fuller to be chief justice.

The senate committee on public buildings and grounds have agreed to report favorably the bills for the erection of public buildings at Zanesville, O. The buildings are to cost $75,000.

House.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Mr. Matson, chairman of the house committee on invalid pensions, has reported a bill removing limitation on arrearages of pensions up to the present date.

The house has passed a bill authorizing the loan of arms and equipments to the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts.

Bills Signed by the President.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Among the bills signed by the president to-day are the following:

Authorizing the secretary of the treasury to award a gold medal of the first class to Capt. Thomas Sampson, of New York city, for recovering five boys from drowning.

Burlington Men's Narrow Escape.

CHICAGO, May 15.—J. L. Tyler and William McMahon, two Burlington employees, came near getting in trouble in Lake, Sunday. They accompanied a Burlington train through the town. At Fifty-first street, while Tyler, who was on the front of the engine, had his head turned, a bar of iron was thrown at him, but missed its mark. Tyler and McMahon gave chase to the assailants, who ran into a Rock Island yard. Once in there, both parties drew their revolvers and for a moment it seemed as if somebody would be killed. A force of Lake police soon appeared and arrested the Burlington men, more their own protection than anything else. As the wagon left the yard a lot of missiles of various sorts were hurled at its occupants, but nobody was hurt.

Shot His Wife and Her Paramour.

MUSCOGEE, I. T., May 15.—News has just been received here of a terrible domestic tragedy, which occurred Saturday at Kialiga Springs. The report states that John Smith has lately been attentive to Mrs. Allen, the wife of a neighbor. While Allen was away from home Thursday, Smith and Mrs. Allen eloped. On Allen's return, he armed himself and went in pursuit of the couple. After a chase of forty miles he overtook them and shot both to death. Smith was a white man and Mrs. Allen a Creek.

Cumback On the Run Power.

NEW YORK, May 15.—A meeting was held Sunday in the Seventeenth Street Methodist church to discuss the work of the church in preserving the Sabbath. Ex-Governor Will. Cumback, of Indiana, presided and made a brief address. He said that Christianity had lifted mankind up from barbarism. A great evil the church had to combat was rum. The men who made drunkards were enemies of civilization. The secret of the influence of Christianity was the spirit of Christ.

Bad Luck of Tobacco Growers.

PARIS, Ky., May 15.—Tobacco men in Bourbon county, it appears, have had the usual bad luck of others throughout the state with their plant-beds. Some complain that their seed did not come up, while others claim that a small, almost invisible fly ate the plants as soon as they appeared through the ground. It is safe, therefore, in saying that the large anticipated acreage will not be planted in this section.

Was Broker Hatch Murdered?

NEW YORK, May 15.—Recent developments in the case of Broker Hatch, who was found dead in the rear of the Scofield residence, and was supposed to have broken his neck trying to get out of the house by means of a tree, indicate that there may have been foul play. Several men are known to have been watching the Scofield residence when Hatch entered it with Mrs. Scofield on the fatal night.

How New York Stands.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Of the fifty-eight Republican delegates to go to Chicago from this state, twenty-four are for Blaine, nineteen for Dewey, three for Hiseock, two doubtful for Sherman, one may go for Gresham, and nine are non-committal. These are the latest and best figures obtainable.

A MISSISSIPPI LEVEE BREAKS

And Inundates a Missouri Town—Floods Elsewhere.

ST. LOUIS, May 15.—A break in the Mississippi levee at Alexander, Mo., Saturday, inundated the town, and half of the houses are partially under water from two to six feet, but property will not be heavily damaged. The area of farming land in the Missouri bottoms that is submerged is estimated at 75,000 acres and a continuance of the flood will result in an approximate loss to the farming community of that region of at least $300,000.

Levees Weakened at Quincy.

QUINCY, Ill., May 15.—The river rose four inches Sunday, and in the evening stood seventeen feet sixteen inches above low water mark. The high northwesterly wind prevailing has created grave fears for the safety of the levees above and below the city, and large forces of men are working day and night strengthening weak places. The levees have been greatly weakened, and a crevasse is expected at any moment. Should a break occur more than two hundred thousand acres of farm land would be inundated. People living in the threatened district have fled to the bluffs. Trains have been abandoned on the St. Louis, Keokuk & Northwestern, between Hannibal and Burlington, and on the Hannibal & St. Joe from Quincy to Palmyra. Branches of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy are greatly impeded. Many buildings in this city are flooded and vacated.

A Perilous Position.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., May 16.—Upon the stability of the railroad embankment of the Rock Island & Peoria road, which bounds the city on the south and west, depends the safety of 300 families. Should the Mississippi force its way through this elevation and the dyke which protects it, a large part of the most thickly populated district of the city would be submerged and hundreds rendered homeless. The water is still gradually rising and much anxiety is felt.

Floods in the East.

WOODSVILLE, N. H., May 15.—Rain has fallen forty-eight hours, and melting snow causes streams in New Hampshire to rise rapidly. Damage to the Montreal railroad is feared.

At Dubuque.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, May 15.—The river has been on a stand for forty-eight hours on a gauge of twenty-two feet four inches, but four inches below high-water mark of 1890.

PETROLEUM ON FIRE.

Thousands of Barrels Burn at Oil City, Pennsylvania—Other Fires.

OIL CITY, Pa., May 15.—A crude petroleum tank, owned by J. B. Smithman & Company, containing 16,000 barrels of oil, was set on fire by lightning Saturday noon. The burning oil flowed down on another tank of 35,000 barrels, setting it on fire. For a while great danger to Oil City was apprehended, but at 3 o'clock a. m. the fire burned itself out, doing no further damage than burning a railroad bridge and several houses. Loss $250,000.

Exaggerated reports were sent out to alarm the country, and many inquiries were made as to the safety of the city. Those reports were sent out by a stranger who represented himself to be a correspondent of a New York paper.

Vinegar Factory Burned.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, May 15.—The vinegar factory belonging to C. E. Howe burned yesterday, entailing a loss of $15,000, insured for $10,000. The works were completed three months ago and had a capacity of 100 barrels per day. The fire originated in the drying room. It will be rebuilt.

THE THIRD WEEK.

Bishop Merrill Presides Over the Methodist Conference.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Bishop Merrill opened the third week's session of the Methodist Episcopal conference at 9 o'clock. After devotional exercises, ex-Lieutenant Governor Cumback, of Indiana, offered the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, that the committee on episcopacy be requested to report on Tuesday, the 15th inst., their action on the resolution electing the bishops for a term of ten years. The matter was referred to the committee on Episcopacy."

Delegate McCullough, of Texas, offered a memorial asking the conference to favor the Blair educational bill now before congress. It was referred to the committee on the state of the church.

The book concern will celebrate its centennial next year, and a resolution was passed to-day, constituting the committee on the book concern an authorized body to make preparations for the celebration of the event. The report of the committee on benevolence was made the order of Wednesday.

Rev. C. W. Smith, of Pittsburgh, offered a resolution which was adopted that the committee on the episcopacy be instructed to report to-morrow whether the conference can be ready to proceed with the election of bishops and other general conference officers by next Thursday.

Rev. W. H. Henderson, of Central Illinois, offered a resolution regarding the election of bishops. He asked that the committee on episcopacy be instructed to so form the rules that only one candidate for a bishopric be ballotted for at a time.

Dr. J. M. Buckley, of New York, offered a substitute for Mr. Hunter's motion, which asked that the voting for bishops should be by orders.

Rev. G. S. Have, of Poughkeepsie, and Rev. W. Olin, of Binghamton, N. Y., gave their views on the motion and the substitute, the latter charging that there were cliques and combinations existing in the conference for the purpose of electing certain candidates. This provoked considerable discussion, and Mr. Hunter's motion with the amendment and substitute was lost.

Rev. D. W. C. Huntington, of the Genesee conference, offered a resolution asking that the election of bishops be decided by a two-thirds vote. The house refused to suspend the rules and entertain the motion.

The conference then adjourned for the day.

Poisoned With Parsnips.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., May 15.—Two children of Joseph Digmanny, twin brothers, aged eight, were fatally poisoned by eating wild parsnips.

ENGLAND'S WAR SCARE

CONTINUES TO DOMINATE IRISH AND OTHER QUESTIONS.

The Belief of Lord Wolsley's Statements Rapidly Growing—Defenses for the Thames—Russia Continues Moving Her Troops to the Front—Foreign News.

LONDON, May 15.—Our war scare, as it is called, still continues to dominate the Irish and other questions. The Daily Telegraph is now accused of working it up as a sensation to sell its paper. This charge is, however, made by Tories in order to, in some measure, discredit and weaken the statements made in regard to the insufficiency of England's army and navy.

The facts are that Lord Charles Beresford, months ago, when he resigned from the admiralty, gave as a reason for doing so its inefficiency, and since that time divers army and navy officers and strategists have in the several journals, daily weekly and monthly, been giving the real situation and estimating what it demands in the way of preparation. All this is in view of impending war, of which all the authorities appear to be assured. Substantially, then, England, according to these military judgments, has a navy, which, notwithstanding it is wanting in some of the heaviest guns that have been placed upon some of the iron-clads of other navies, yet has a navy that is 30 per cent. greater than that of any other power.

Fifty years ago, however, her widespread colonial interests were guaranteed by a navy equal to the combined navies of the world. Now England is dependent upon the food supply of foreign countries to supply her millions, and her trade upon which her finances depend is everywhere. Her routes, coaling stations and naval depots are therefore numerous and must be protected. They for the most part are not fortified, and when the English navy has given them protection she has no sufficient navy left to compete with a first-class naval power in active warfare; and so London itself is considered in danger from such a power as France.

In spite of the vigorous denunciation of Lord Wolsley by the premier and the milk and water denials of the published statements purporting to show the condition of the army and the defenses made by the Duke of Cambridge and others, popular belief in the truth of the allegations is rapidly growing, and gradually prominent statesmen and military authorities hitherto silent on the subject are being drawn into the controversy started by Gen. Wolsley's speech and the presumably authoritative statement published in the Telegraph.

Lord Randolph Churchill, who stands before the country as the champion of economy, rushes into print this morning to inform the Telegraph, and through it the public that the allegations of that paper are verified by the testimony of the highest military authority, and in doing so takes occasion to read Lord Salisbury a letter on the nature of truthfulness, even to a pioneer. In view of the wholesale censure which has been visited upon Gen. Wolsley and others, not so apparently for having told tales out of school as for having told them truthfully, it would seem as though Lord Churchill were surcharged with anxiety to bring official censure upon his own head with the ulterior purpose of throwing himself into the breach as the chief opponent of Lord Salisbury, and reaping the full benefit of a victorious contest.

Lord Randolph, having sat last week as the chairman of the house committee on army estimates, before which several eminent military officers gave testimony, is necessarily in possession of the best available information concerning the exact state of efficiency of the forces and the condition of the defenses, and his unqualified denial of the official assertions that they have been misrepresented by Gen. Wolsley and the Telegraph's informant have the effect to greatly augment the large number of persons who were convinced from the first of the truth of the statements.

Whether the inevitable violation of the matter shall disclose a state of affairs as bad as the Telegraph, Lord Beresford, Gen. Wolsley, Sir Charles Dilke and others have alleged, or shall uphold the positive denials of the premier and the secretary for war, there is no disguising the fact that the allegations have created a scare from which it will take the public a long time to recover. The government is being stirred into action. It has ordered that two modern thirty-ton guns be mounted on the central bastion facing the sea at Sheerness, and other measures of defense will be adopted on the Thames.

Russia Continues Her Preparation.

LONDON, May 15.—Advice from Cracow say it is reported there that barracks for two infantry regiments are being erected in haste at Konin, on the Prussian frontier, in the district of Kalisz.

This is the Polish quadrangle, which is strongly fortified, with a view, as supposed, to a defensive war against Austria in the north, while her aggressive campaign will be in the Balkan states. The St. Petersburg papers deny the truth of the statement that she contemplates a coup de main either in central Asia or Persia.

Will Reply to Parnell's Speech.

LONDON, May 15.—The Rome correspondent of the Chronicle says that all Catholic papers in Rome have been directed from the Vatican to reply to Parnell's speech. The Moutour says that Parnell being Protestant is not competent to speak for Catholic Irishmen, and that the many adhesions to the decree coming from Irish clergymen and laymen demonstrate that he does not understand the feeling of the people. It is thought that unless signs of a revolt appear the pope will not demand a collective adhesion of the Irish bishops.

Foreign Notes.

The emperor passed a good night. The discharge of pus has lessened.

The London Times gives a warning to the Gladstonian liberals that it has disclosures to make regarding intimate relations between the National league leaders and dynamiters.

Experiments with bellite, a new explosive invented by Lamm, of Stockholm, show that it is more powerful than dynamite, but that its explosion is quieter, there is less scattering of fragments and it is much safer to handle.

The result of the parliamentary election in the St. Stephen's Green division of Dublin, has been announced. Mr. Thomas Dickson, Nationalist, received 4,819 votes and his opponent, Mr. Sexton, Conservative, received 2,932 votes. The election was to fill the seat which was left vacant by the death of Mr. E. Dwyer Gray.

Austrian measures excluding Chinese are not approved by the English government, who, at this time, is particularly anxious to be on friendly terms with China. The threat to aid China in becoming a strong military power is one that England has effectively used against Russia as an offset to the threat of the latter against India.

A dispatch from Gibraltar to the Exchange Telegraph company concerning the settlement of the dispute between the United States and Morocco, says: "After the withdrawal of the claims for a money indemnity an apology was tendered to the American consul, and orders were given for the immediate release of the persons whose arrest gave rise to the trouble."

Dr. William Grosvenor, a millionaire property owner of Providence, R. I., was arrested under the prohibitory law for allowing a liquor saloon in one of his buildings. The penalty is fine and imprisonment.

No matter how guileless a fellow may look when he walks into a Laporte, Ind., saloon and asks for soda water with a fly in it, he is likely to be a secret emissary of the local law and order league which walketh in darkness, and booze dealers say that if this continual hectoring is kept up they will shoot the business and hire out to the summer circus as living skeletons.

A Sporting Man Killed.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 15.—William H. Hopkins, a sporting man, was killed Saturday night by James S. Getchell, an amateur sparrer, during a quarrel, in which Hopkins was knocked down, and in falling struck his head on an iron rail, fracturing his skull.

PORTSMOUTH has at last succeeded in getting an appropriation for a public building. The sum allowed is $60,000.

The Democratic clubs are gathering at Lexington to-day for the State Convention to-morrow. It will be an harmonious meeting.

Why can't Maysville get a public building, now that Portsmouth has secured hers? Will Hon. George M. Thomas please answer?

CAPT. DAN TURNEY has invited the members of the Kentucky Press Association to be his guests for a couple of days at the Arlington Hotel, Blue Lick Springs, just after their meeting at Danville, July 4th.

WEST VIRGINIA will have to wait awhile before she gets her outlaws, and it may be long wait too. The Hatfields will be tried in Pike County, the Supreme Court of the United States having settled all questions on that point.

DURING the past two weeks the government has got rid of $10,000,000 of the public debt by buying up bonds that were not due. Better use some of the surplus in this way than let it remain piled up in the treasury.

HON. BERNARD WILKINS represents an Ohio District in Congress, and he is one of the few Democrats who have opposed the Mills tariff bill. A few days ago his district refused him a renomination and chose an out-and-out tariff reformer as their leader in the coming fight. Here is one of the resolutions adopted by the convention:

"We hereby instruct Congressman Wilkins to leave the Randall crowd and vote with the majority on the Mills bill."

"We love Grover Cleveland for the enemies he has made," said General Bragg; "We love him for the message he has written," says the St. Paul Globe; "We love him for the rascals he has turned out," says Tammany; "We love him because he led us to victory in 1884 and can do it again," says the Democratic party, the only sure enough G. O. P. on earth.—Louisville Times.

It is almost the unanimous opinion of the leading Democratic editors of the country that the history of 1884 is to be repeated in the coming campaign. And editors are supposed to voice the sentiment of the people on such subjects. Cleveland's endorsement on every hand is hearty and enthusiastic, and shows how strongly he is beloved by the people.

State Taxes.

The Auditor has issued the following "Instructions to Sheriffs," which will prove of interest to the general public:

FRANKFORT, May 6, 1888.

Instructions to Sheriffs: A bill was passed in the last few days of the Legislature reducing the rate of taxation to 42 cents; but in view of the fact that there is already a deficit in the Treasury of about $200,000, and that the old rate of taxation, even under the most favorable circumstances, will not, in the next year, bring in more than enough revenue to make good that deficit, the Governor disapproved the bill. Inasmuch as it came to him only an hour or two before the close of the session, with a multitude of other bills which it was his duty to pass upon, he did not have time to set forth his reasons for doing so to the Legislature, but simply disapproved it.

You will collect, as heretofore, 47½ cents on the $100. Very respectfully,
FAYETTE HEWITT, Auditor.

Stock, Field and Farm.

The fruit crop is as yet uninjured, and the prospects are good for a bountiful harvest.—Vanceburg Republican.

At the sale of T. J. Megibben's Edge-water yearlings at Lexington, 16 head brought $8,875, an average of $554.68. The highest prices were $1,550 and $1,000 for Springbok colts, and $1,000 for an Andalusian colt.

N. J. Power & Co., of Fourth street, recently shipped fourteen head of horses to Cincinnati for Charles Kahn; eleven head of horses for Sam Davis & Bro., to Bloomington, Ill., and four head of mules to Pennsylvania for Hendrick & Son, of Flemingsburg. The firm is composed of N. J. Power, R. A. Carr and F. M. Tolle.

Jennie Calef.

An exchange in speaking of Miss Jennie Calef in "An American Princess" says: "Jennie Calef ranks with such American actresses as Lotta, Annie Pixley and Maggie Mitchell, and has made for herself a wide reputation. She is supported by an excellent company.

"Her new piece is of 'Miles type, but of a loftier and more refined character. There are several comedy parts in the play that are well taken. Miss Calef carries her own scenery and for costuming and mounting the piece stands quite unexcelled."

At opera house to-night. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Riverside.

It would have done one's soul good to have passed along the streets of Riverside the day after the BULLETIN announced the release of its inhabitants from the ban of Plutonium. The young ladies' faces were especially bright and happy, and it seemed to somewhat "smooth the wrinkled front of grim-visaged" men. The grum growler has not yet come forth, in fact, it looks very much like there are no grum men or women in busy Riverside, or lazy persons either, unless, except possibly there might be one or two Government Storekeepers classed in the latter blue, and their laziness, so Billy McAtee says, is only apparent, not real.

"Charley, how do you like your new appellation?" "First rate, we deserve a good name. I was living here when John Hughes gave us the name Plutonium. It originated in this way: He was knocking the plug from a beer keg while a fight or two was going on outside, and just as the plug flew into the air he yelled, 'Hurrah for Plutonium,' and that name, deserved at the time, has stuck to us ever since."

Mrs. Frank Boughner says Riverside is such a pretty name, and Frank himself declares that now he lives in a decently-named town he will go on improving, with some hope of a hereafter.

Jake Miller went wild over the new name, so sudden and unexpected was the transformation from Plutonium to Riverside. With beaming face he said, "Pretty good, who got that up? I'm glad."

Henry Pogue, Jr., who wears a plug sometimes, says that notwithstanding the change in the name the plug will be seen occasionally gliding noiselessly through the air, not "in memory" but in high respect for Riverside.

Henry, who is not a professional and only works at carving occasionally for pastime, has just about completed a model of his own design for Mrs. John N. Thomas. It is a beautiful and highly artistic piece of work. Vines and wreaths of ivy and maple are made to twine around and creep over the whole surface of the wood, carved into the letters of Mrs. Thomas' name, looking as though they had actually grown there. The work so artistically and skillfully done appears to an outsider as a very difficult task, yet it was accomplished with an ease and grace that an adept might well be proud of.

Pogue & Thomas are having a new road made to the steamboat landing. They have purchased 20,000 bushels of coal, which will be landed here in a few days, for manufacturing purposes. They will also at once commence repairs and improvements in their distillery which will be put in first-class order.

J. H. Rogers, after a successful run of about five months, closed operations at his distillery on last Saturday, the 13th inst.

Robert Lane, who has a beautiful garden here, sent the first fruits of the season to market last Saturday week.

There came very near being a disastrous fire here on Friday week, and but for the timely rush of the revenue department would not only in a few minutes have burned down a home but cremated three children as well. The house is occupied by a worthy colored man, and family, and it was very fortunate indeed that the blaze was discovered in time. The family were prone to their thanks for assistance rendered.

Mrs. Beasley and daughters are forever at work among the flowers of which they have a profusion in their beautiful yard, making a splendid display and showing great taste in their arrangement. Also Mrs. Jacob Wormald, assisted by Miss Ella Pierce, a charming young lady residing with her, is giving great attention to floriculture and will in a short time have a tastefully decorated yard and garden.

The railroad is being pushed forward through Riverside with great vigor, and it will be but a short time before the road-bed all along our front will be ready for the rails. Our people are looking forward with much pleasure to the advent of the iron-horse, and some are talking about having a boom.

Echoes From The Conclave.

The Vanceburg Times says: "The Sir Knights have returned from Maysville, and report a splendid time, an immense throng and an occasion of joy to be remembered forever."

Grand Recorder L. D. Croninger, of Covington, in writing for a copy of the EVENING BULLETIN, of Friday, says: "Hurrah for Maysville. She 'beats the world' for entertaining."

The Vanceburg Republican remarks that "the visiting Sir Knights report the conclave as one of the most brilliant they have ever had the good fortune to attend and speak in the highest terms of the hospitality shown them by the citizens of Maysville."

Last week in making mention of the decorations appropriate to the occasion the BULLETIN unintentionally overlooked many that were deserving of special notice. One of these was the attractive design of T. J. Curley, the plumber, who displayed at night by means of gas jets the figure of a knight with drawn sword. Another was the beautiful fountain erected by Messrs. Henry Ort and T. J. Curley in front of their business houses on East Second.

A Child Choked to Death.

The BULLETIN'S Germantown correspondent sends the particulars of a sad and fatal accident that occurred near Bridgeville last Saturday afternoon. "The wife of Samuel Insko, Jr., sent her little girl to the home of Mr. Alf. Berry, a neighbor living but a short distance away, on an errand. The child not returning on time, the mother went in search, and on reaching the house found her daughter suspended from the window, lifeless, with the sash across her neck. She immediately raised the sash and laid the child on the ground and with her heartrending screams attracted the neighbors.

"It is presumed that not finding the family at home the child undertook to raise the window and climb into the house. Her feet slipping the sash fell across her neck, either breaking it or choking her to death.

"The unfortunate child was about twelve years of age, a general favorite and her untimely death has cast a shadow of grief over the entire community. The mother was a Miss Howard, from near Murphysville, one of the best of women, and if sympathy could soothe the bitter grief of heartbroken parents theirs would be soothed and softened to the fullest extent."

The trial of Nannie Green, the colored girl charged with killing her new-born babe a few months ago, resulted in a hung jury. Ten of the jurors were in favor of sending the accused to the penitentiary for life. The case will come up for trial again at the next term of court. Court adjourned this morning until Thursday.

The next encampment will be held at Ashland, Ky.

County Court Doings.

Baird, Paducah, W. Rudy, Louisville, Trustees; Isaac Marks, L. P. Young, J. S. Walker, Representatives. The next session will be held at Versailles May 8, 1889.

THE L. Schreiber & Sons Company, of Cincinnati, will in a few days begin putting up the iron front for Mr. Fred Schatzmann's new building on Market street. Mr. Schatzmann's intention at first was to have a two-story building, but he afterwards decided to make it three stories high, and the change has necessarily occasioned some delay on the part of the Schreiber & Sons Company. The iron front, it is said, will be the handsomest in this part of the State. The company will also commence erecting the Shackleford front on Second street about the same time.

MR. W. LARUE THOMAS, at present sojourning in this city, was re-elected Auditor of the Southern Baptist Association Saturday. The association met in annual session at Richmond, Va., last week, but Mr. Thomas was prevented from attending, as he was the only representative of the Grand Encampment of the Knights Templar of this country at the conclave in this city. The Association is one of the largest religious organizations in America, and Mr. Thomas' many friends here and throughout Kentucky will be glad to learn that he has been honored with a re-election to the position of Auditor.

A COLORADO COLLISION.

RUNAWAY CARS COLLIDE WITH AN EXPRESS TRAIN.

Two Cars, One Loaded With Naphtha and One With Powder, Explode—Several Buildings Demolished—Two Men and One Woman Known to Have Been Killed.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., May 15.—This morning about 3 o'clock the north bound Santa Fe passenger train, which left Kansas City Saturday night running forty miles an hour, ran into a car loaded with naphtha at the town of Fountain, near Colorado Springs. A terrible explosion followed. The shock from the explosion broke the glass here.

Later particulars received from Fountain, where the Santa Fe train collided with the freight, says that the "Thunderbolt" arrived there at 2:41 a. m. The brakes of a caboose and some cars, which were standing on a side track, got loose in some unexplained way and the cars ran into the train with a terrific crash. Naphtha, which was on one of the cars, immediately exploded, throwing the oil over everything and setting the train on fire.

Those cars which did not catch were shoved back from the wreck by the crew, but two cars that had been left standing on the main track and which had a quantity of powder on board, exploded with a tremendous report. The depot, a few dwelling houses and some cars were completely demolished.

Rumors were made current here that a large number of people had been killed, but it is now definitely known that only three persons, two men and one woman, were killed. Their names cannot be ascertained. The list of injured runs up to twelve or fifteen persons and may be augmented by more.

The force of the explosion may be inferred when it is said that a hole thirty feet in diameter and fifteen feet deep, was made in the ground where the cars stood. Outside of the two cars which were burned, sixteen cars, together with the locomotive, were wrecked.

Wreck on the Reading.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 15.—The train on the Shenandoah branch of the Reading road connecting with the Buffalo night express was thrown from the track at Lost Creek at 4 o'clock this morning, completely wrecking the engine, fatally injuring the engineer and probably the fireman. No passengers were hurt. The accident was caused by an obstruction wedged in the switch frog. Attempts to wreck passenger trains on this branch have been frequent before and since the strike troubles. This is the first accident resulting therefrom.

Engineer and Fireman Killed.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., May 15.—The boiler of an eastern-bound freight engine exploded Sunday morning near Rawling's water station, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The engineer, S. A. Woodruff, and fireman, H. E. Kitzmiller, were killed instantly. The former resided here with his wife and two children. The latter was unmarried, and lived at Cumberland.

FIRST IN THE FIELD.

Two National Conventions, Both Labor, Meet in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 15.—The two National labor conventions open in this city for business, at noon, Tuesday. The two parties are known as the Union Labor and the United Labor. The latter is the old Henry George party, whose principal issue is the land tax theory, and whose principal leader is Rev. Dr. McGlynn, of New York city. They meet in the Grand opera house, where Dr. McGlynn lectured last evening upon "The Masses against the Classes."

The Union Labor party's convention is held in the Odeon. This party is composed of the old Greenbackers and members of several other defunct parties, and has much the larger convention in point of numbers, delegates—including several ladies—being present from over thirty states.

An effort will be made to unite the two parties under one organization, but it is difficult to say what will become of the outcome of this movement, as there are so many different views that will be hard to harmonize.

A COLD WAVE

Strikes Iowa and Illinois, Saturday night. Fruit Killed.

MONMOUTH, May 15.—This vicinity was visited by a severe cold snap, Saturday night. Ice formed in basins three-quarters of an inch thick, and frost was heavy. Hardfrost now report new potatoes, tomatoes, apples and other early vegetables killed.

At Galesburg, Illinois.

GALESBURG, Ill., May 15.—The cold was so severe here Saturday night that the ground was frozen and ice formed. Great damage was inflicted on vegetables and small fruits, and such corn as was up was out down.

At Waterloo, Iowa.

WATERLOO, Iowa, May 15.—The temperature Saturday night reached 26 degrees and the frost is quite severe. It is feared that early fruit is badly damaged and oats are said to have been considerably cut.

Where is Lewis Hild?

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 15.—Relatives of Lewis Hild, a young farmer residing near Akron, who mysteriously disappeared March 17, have placed the case here with a detective agency. Hild was in good circumstances, had no bad habits and was to have been married in a short time to Miss Lizzie Forbes, of Macedonia, O., he having leased a farm on which they intended to live the day of his disappearance. Hild called on his sister, gave her his purse containing $600 and his gold watch, and remarking, "I'll be home Monday," walked out. The case is shrouded in mystery.

A Big Baptist Gathering.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The program for the great Baptist gathering to be held in Washington this week, beginning on Tuesday, has been completed. The most important of the Baptist societies will be in session, including the Woman's Home and Foreign Mission and the Educational and Publication societies. Two or three thousand delegates are expected to be present at the meetings.

Robbed His Roommate.

CIRCLEVILLE, O., May 15.—Luther M. Maag was arrested by Marshal Anderson on a warrant sworn out by Philip Snyder, charging him with stealing $300 from Snyder's room. He was confined in the station house to await his preliminary trial.

MEXICAN TRAIN ROBBERS.

NOGALES, Ariz., May 15.—A passenger train on the Sonora railroad was attacked by Mexican train robbers at 10 o'clock Friday night at Aqua Zarca. Several shots were fired and Fireman Forbes was instantly killed. The robbers then made for the express car and shot Ike Hay, the messenger. Conductor Lewis Atkinson was fatally shot as he stepped from the baggage car, and W. H. French, a passenger, was shot while standing in the second-class coach.

A large number of passengers made a rush for the forward part of the train, but were warned back by the robbers. The latter fled with the express safe, containing only $130.

The man Taylor, arrested Saturday on suspicion of being one of the Sonora train robbers at Aqua Zarca, made a partial confession Sunday. He said a man named Roling, who has been around town with Taylor for a few days, was the leader of the party.

Roling and a Mexican left here, Saturday morning early, and Saturday night camped near Crittenden, Ariz., about thirty miles from here. A posse was arranged here, Saturday morning, by Sheriff Shaw, of Tucson, and United States Marshal Meade, of Tombstone, who left on a special train about 12 o'clock in pursuit of Roling and the Mexican.

A telegram Sunday afternoon says Roling was captured at Huachuca, Ariz. The Mexican left Roling's company before the latter reached Huachuca, and several parties are following him. Express Messenger Hay and passenger French are doing nicely, and hopes are entertained for their recovery. Ten Mexican authorities arrested two more men Sunday who were barricaded in a house in the Mexican part of the town.

SUNDAY IN CINCINNATI.

The Prompt Measures of the Authorities Produced Good Results.

CINCINNATI, May 15.—Not a saloon or concert hall open on Vine street from one end to the other, and this was the case all over the city with four exceptions. The hill-top resorts also were shut up tight. The prompt and decided measures of the authorities, and the order of Mayor Smith to arrest on the spot all violators of the Sunday law, were productive of good results.

Beer was sold at the Zoological gardens. This is now a part of the city, but the legal transfer has not yet taken place, so no arrests were made.

Some of the saloonkeepers let Sunday selling die hard. Dozier, at 613 Vine street, had his windows covered with crape curtains.

The four persons who violated the law did so by keeping their back doors open. They were promptly arrested.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Indications: Stationary temperature, followed by slightly warmer, fair weather, except local rains on the lakes; winds becoming light to fresh northwesterly.
